Sommernachtsfest Postponed.
Owing to the unpropitious weather, which kept hundreds away, the Arion Society last evening postponed their contemplated sommernachtsfest at Wheeling park until next week, the date to be announced hereafter.

Wool Goes Up.

Advises received yesterday in the city stated that the price of wool took a jump upward in the London markets yesterday. The finer grades advanced 10 per cent, and the cross breeds 5 per cent. The probabilities are good for this jump being stationary for awhile, with an additional advance being included in the prognostications.

In Clerk Robertson's Office.

Yesterday, in Clerk Robertson's office, the following were recorded:
Deed made September 18, 1899, by August Goetze and wife to Joseph M. Arkle, consideration $1,450, transfers north one-half of lot 3 in square 15, Sprigg & Ritchie addition.
Deed made July 20, 1899, transfers lot 132 in Greenwood cemetery to Frederick Gunther, consideration $95.
A marriage license was issued to John A. Brady, 25, and Emma M. Driller, 23, of Wheeling.

The W. C. T. U. Convention.

The disagreeable weather yesterday morning limited the attendance at the Ohio county W. C. T. U. convention, held at Roney's Point, and in consequence very few attended from this city. The ladies of Roney's Point hospitably entertained the visitors and the day's sessions were interesting and instructive. A meeting of the Wheeling branch is called for Thursday afternoon at the Fourth Street Methodist Episcopal church, to perfect arrangements for representation at the state W. C. T. U. convention, which is to be held at Buckhannon, September 26-29. Part of the delegation was elected at a previous meeting. A full attendance of the members is desired.

NOT A THING

Would Dugan Have Done to Telephone Men, at Benwood.

HIS FLOURISHED SHOT GUN

Warned Them to Cease Erecting a Pole on What he Claims is his Property, and They Ceased—Dugan's Hearing Before Mayor Shepard Today—Contention With the Council Over Ground May End in Courts.

Several weeks ago, Walter Dugan, a Benwood contractor, became involved in a controversy with the Benwood council as to the boundary lines of his property, the occasion of the dispute being with reference to the location of a telephone pole in front of the Dugan property, which is near the Wheeling steel works. Mr. Dugan claimed the telephone company was trying to place the pole on his property, and Engineer Smith, who was employed by the council, decided otherwise.

The Bell telephone people are changing some of their poles in Benwood, and yesterday afternoon, two of the force engaged in this work, began preparations for setting a pole in front of the Dugan home, on what Mr. Dugan still insists is his ground. As soon as he perceived their purpose, Mr. Dugan grabbed his shot gun and vehemently declared his intention to send the invaders to kingdom come unless they were immediately conspicuous by their absence. Fearing what Dugan might do to them, the telephone men soon retreated from connection with the shot gun.

The incident occasioned great excitement in the vicinity, and Marshal Furbee placed Dugan under arrest. Later he was released on his own recognizance for a hearing at 1 p. m. to-day before Mayor Shepard, on the charge of threatening to do personal violence. Mr. Dugan declared his intention of fighting the matter in the courts and has employed T. S. Riley to look after his case. He has had clashes with the city and county before in civil suits. The warrant for his arrest was sworn out by Mr. McElliott, foreman of the construction gang.

DISTINGUISHED CLERGYMAN

From Scotland to Deliver an Address Here This Evening.

The Rev. J. G. Cunningham, D. D., one of the leading Presbyterian clergymen of Edinburgh, Scotland, will deliver an address this evening in the lecture room of the First Presbyterian church, of this city, at 7:30. The Presbyterians of Wheeling and vicinity and the general public are cordially invited. Dr. Cunningham is to be a member of the pan-Presbyterian council, which is to meet in Washington, D. C., on September 27th, and will be in session for ten days. He delivered several addresses and sermons in August at the Moody summer meetings in Northfield, Mass.; also at the Winona assembly in Indiana, and at the Wooster university, Ohio, and at the Western theological seminary, Allegheny, Pa. This distinguished Scotch minister will be in this city but one night, and will be the guest of his friend, Dr. D. A. Cunningham, on Fourteenth street. This (Wednesday) evening will be the only opportunity of hearing him in Wheeling.

Death of Miss Adelaide Gilchrist.

The friends and acquaintances of Miss Adelaide Kirk Gilchrist, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Gilchrist, of Elm Grove, and sister of Mr. G. R. E. Gilchrist, were deeply pained to learn of her death at 11 o'clock yesterday morning. Miss Gilchrist possessed the most attractive qualities, combining a charming personality and lovely character. She was well known in the east, where she was occupied in teaching, having been associated for a number of years with Mr. William M. Chase in his summer school at Southampton, Long Island. She returned home about two weeks ago in ill health, caused by heart trouble, to which affliction she finally succumbed. Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

THE pain of a burn or scald is almost instantly relieved by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It also heals the injured parts more quickly than any other treatment, and without the burn is very severe does not leave a scar. For sale by druggists.
